Dear Mr. Cullinane,

I have today returned from visiting my wife Aung San Suu Kyi in Rangoon. I am sending you now the letter of thanks addressed to you and your colleagues in Amnesty who so kindly baked the birthday cake for her last year. I may tell you she was very touched by this kind gesture. Our ~~song~~ and I enjoyed the cake ^{with her} very much indeed on New Year's Day. Younger

Suu is now in the sixth year of her detention without trial and although we are allowed to pay her visits from time to time you can imagine that these years have not been easy for her. Nevertheless she is always strengthened by the knowledge that so many people throughout the world are thinking of her.

With all good wishes and my own thanks,
Yours sincerely,

Dr. Michael Aris
